

The Exchange Club Family Resource Center
Katie Dempsey Star Volunteer Award 2010

Official Nomination Form

The Katie Dempsey Star Volunteer Award is the highest recognition conveyed upon an Exchange Club Family Resource Center Volunteer.

In 2003, The Exchange club Family Resource Center wanted to recognize individuals for their commitment and participation in our mission to prevent child abuse and neglect in Rome/Floyd County. The Katie Dempsey Star Volunteer Award was developed to identify and select individuals that have displayed outstanding volunteer efforts in the name of The Exchange Club Family Resource Center and the lives they have touched. The announcement of this year's recipient will be made at the 10th Annual Night at the Movies.

Criteria:

- ◆ Past or present involvement in The Exchange Club Family Resource Center activities or child abuse prevention efforts.
- ◆ Achievements that have or will substantially advance The Exchange Club Family Resource Center toward fulfillment of its overall mission—to provide education and support to families in Rome/Floyd County in order to strengthen the parenting and life skills of the parents and prevent child abuse and neglect within these families.
